The International Conference on Waste Management and Technology (ICWMT) is an important platform for experts and officials to discuss scientific problems related to solid waste management, exchange knowledge, and seek innovative solutions. Initiated by the Basel Convention Regional Centre for Asia and the Pacific and approved by the Ministry of Ecology and Environment of the People's Republic of China, ICWMT has been held 14 times since its inaugural meeting in 2005. Each year, ICWMT attracts participants from government, top research institutes, prestigious universities and industrial enterprises both within China and abroad.

ICWMT 15 will be held in Beijing, China from March 21st to 24th, 2020. The theme of this year's conference is "To Build a Zero-waste City Systematically". Throughout the conference, prominent researchers and government officials will give keynote speeches on pressing issues of solid waste management. ICWMT 15 provides an excellent opportunity for participants from industry and academia to keep up-to-date with the latest trends in solid waste management.
